HOOVER RIDICULES IDEA THAT HE GAVE AID TO THE PACKERS

Paris, Jan. 23.—Herbert Hoover today flatly denied the charges, made in the United States senate during debate on the $100,000,000 food bill, that he had worked in the interests of the American packing industry.

Hoover ridiculed the idea that he had benefited the big packers.

He declared that he worked to give American farmers a square deal and protect small packers.

The attack on Hoover in the senate was made by enemies of the bill providing $100,000,000 to feed Europeans, other than inhabitants of the central powers. Hoover was assailed as the man who have charge of spending this money.

"I apparently emerge in a new light as the friend of the Chicago packers," said Hoover. "At the same time the mail brings the report from Swift & Co., blaming the food administration for reducing their profits by $10,000,000 during the last year. I don't imagine the packers would appreciate a wide circle of such friends.

"I notice also I committed a crime by holding the October joint conference of farmers and representatives of forty packers, as well as bringing the packers together with representatives of the allied governments for the purpose of settling on a price for exports of pork that would give the American farmers a square deal, and a distribution of orders that would protect small packers.

"We have even tried to secure the continuance of these war arrangements through the armistice period and the opening of other markets, because the American farmer did his duty and produced the goods.

"If the American farmer and the small packer now feel that these arrangements are wrong it would be the greatest burden of our shoulders if we could know it quickly. The British government is particularly anxious to be relieved from these arrangements."

BREWERS WOULD GET A POOR WELCOME IN THE ORIENT

Chicago, Jan. 23.—China's welcome to brewers and distillers, if they attempt to build their business in the Orient, will not be a warm one.

Edward B. Kan, of the intelligence department here, a Chinaman, today declared the Chinese government authorities will undoubtedly prevent any efforts of the liquor men to establish themselves there.

"Chinamen at home are not drinkers. As a rule, liquor is not found in a Chinese home," Kan said.

"If the distillers and brewers were permitted to open their business, it will not be long before many who hardly knew the taste of liquor would be drinkers. I believe the country would not take up this habit, in view of the recent success in ridding itself of opium."

LEGISLATION RECORD IS SMASHED IN OHIO

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Records on temperance legislation were smashed this evening, when not a single objector appeared to argue against the most drastic piece of prohibition legislation ever presented to an Ohio legislature—the proposed prohibition enforcement bill. James A. White, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League said it was the first time that a public committee meeting on proposed legislation ever was announced that no person had appeared to oppose it in some form or other.

However, White had not accepted tonight's occurrence as final evidence that there will be no objections to the prohibition enforcement measure. He knows there will be, for druggists, wine manufacturers and pharmacists have asked to be heard on the measure next week. A public hearing probably will be accorded next Wednesday night. Mr. White will appear before the joint committee next Tuesday and explain the bill in detail.

Representative Lenz of Ottawa county, who voted for the national prohibition amendment, asked the only question concerning the prohibition bill. He wanted to know if it prohibits the manufacture of grape juice. White told him that it did not, but admitted that it probably will be necessary to incorporate amendments to make the exception more definite.

NO OPPONENTS APPEAR

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Not one opponent appeared at the house and senate temperance committee hearing last night on anti-saloon bills. James A. White will argue in favor of the bills next Tuesday.

WANT GIRLS REPLACED BY "BOY BELL HOPS"

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Gideons today began a campaign to replace girl bells with boys. A. B. T. Moore, National Secretary, wrote the Hotel Men's Protective Association on that subject.

"Girls are greatly exposed in the hotel atmosphere," Moore said. "War time necessity for their employment has now passed."

One Chicago hotel had today supplanted the girls by boy dime tachers.

TOPICS CONCERNING GAME AND GAME BIRDS TO BE DISCUSSED

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Topics concerning propagation and conservation of game and game birds were to be discussed at a meeting of Ohio sportsmen at Hotel Deshler this afternoon, called by Secretary Shaw of the state board of agriculture. Special efforts are being made to secure from farmers the use of large tracts of land for sanctuary purposes.

A banquet to-night will feature the meeting. Robert Schryver, secretary of the Ohio Bankers' Association, will preside as toastmaster.

Speakers will include Gov. Cox, E. A. Quarles, New York, executive head of the American Game Protective Association, and Norman McClintock, Pittsburgh. The latter will show big game film pictures.

BERLIN IN DARKNESS AND IS WITHOUT ANY STREET CAR SERVICE

Berlin, Jan. 21.—Berlin was without street railway transportation, and was practically lightless tonight, as a result of a strike of electric power employees.

All street cars were tied up and many of the big restaurants were closed. Others were lighted dimly by gas. The streets were dark. The government had disconnected all telephones in the commercial district.

CUT OUT GERMAN IN MILWAUKEE

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 23.—Teaching of the German language in Milwaukee grade schools, which in 1916 required the services of 200 instructors, for the 30,000 pupils, will be entirely discontinued in June, under a resolution by the school board. German is now being taught in only one school.

The school board abolished the foreign language department last summer, effective at the end of the present school year. Leo Stern, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of the foreign language department, has resigned, after thirty-five years' service.

Before the war with Germany, Mr. Stern was a leader of the German-American alliance movement in America.

HEADED FOR FINAL PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

Washington, Jan. 23.—Telegraph operators' views on the Moon resolution to continue government ownership of telegraph lines, were presented to the house post office committee today.

BOLSHEVIKI CAPTURE BALTIC PORT, ADVANCE IN ESTHONIA

Riga, important Russian port on the Baltic sea and a city of great strategic value is in the hands of the Bolsheviks, according to dispatches. It was taken after stiff fighting. The city is at the mouth of the Dvinsk river. In Esthonia the Bolsheviks have advanced through Charlottenoff on their way to Reval (2), which may fall into their hands. The Reds, latest dispatches state, have taken possession of Viina (3), capital of Lithuania. A massacre of civilians followed the victory partly because the Poles had shot Bolshevik committees in the city.

LOUIS F. SWIFT IS CALLED TO TESTIFY

Washington, Jan. 23.—Louis F. Swift, was to appear before the house interstate commerce commission today to continue defense of the packers begun by J. Ogden Armour.

BRITISH ATTITUDE TO IRISH REPUBLIC IS STILL AN ENIGMA

Dublin, Jan. 23.—With an Irish ministry appointed and plans under way for a nation-wide parliamentary election, the attitude of the British government toward the new republic of Ireland continued to be an enigma today.

The Sinn Feiners had taken action that amounted to open secession and still the imperial authorities refrained from repressive measures. Following Tuesday's initial meeting of the Irish parliament, in which a declaration of independence was adopted, and delegates selected to the peace conference, the Sinn Feiners met in secret session yesterday. An official communiqué of the proceedings, issued in Gaelic, said:

"A temporary premier was elected. He selected four ministers. A temporary chairman was elected. Twenty-four deputies were present."

The names of the cabinet members were not announced. It was reported that a constitution was adopted, providing that a premier shall be elected by parliament, with authority to appoint and remove the ministers of finance, home affairs, foreign affairs and defense. Parliament would be elected by nation-wide suffrage, the conditions and date of the election to be announced later.

HIGHER WAGES FOR EUROPE IS THE AIM OF SAMUEL GOMPERS

Washington, Jan. 23.—Higher wages for workers in Europe to keep up high wages in this country is one of the main aims of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, now in Europe, it was learned in labor circles here today. Realizing that the products of cheap European labor, pouring into the American market, will force wages down, probably despite tariff, Gompers hopes to boost wages in the old nations through the international trade union, which he is now endeavoring to organize.

SEVEN OF ESCAPED CONVICTS CAUGHT

Rock Island, Ill., Jan. 23.—Seven of the twenty escaped Rock Island convicts were in the jail today—one of them suffering from a bullet wound in the back.

Alfredo De Leon, Mexican was arrested on a charge of robbery near Corona, 20 miles from Rock Island, after he had been chased a mile by deputy sheriffs, who stopped him with a shotgun volley.

Six others were caught yesterday.

UNITED STATES WILL GET USE OF ALL GERMAN LLOYD LINERS

By Robert J. Bender.

Paris, Jan. 23.—The United States will get the use of all the great North German Lloyd liners for repatriation of American troops, it was learned today.

(This refers to such liners in German ports. Those in American ports were seized when the United States entered the war.)

The Germans will be paid the usual scale of remuneration for use of their ships, their property rights will be unaffected and the ships will be returned to them when peace is signed.

(Announcement was made recently that Great Britain was paid at the rate of $50 for each American soldier transported to France.)

Great Britain is to receive some German passenger ships for transporting Australian troops homeward, while France and Italy will be given most of the German merchant ships for transportation of food and materials.

Details of the transfer of German shipping will be completed at a meeting of civilian representatives of Germany and the associated powers at the Spa next week. This plan marks a new departure in handling the economic affairs of Germany, in that civilians will be in control and Germany will be represented.

It developed today that at the recent armistice meeting in Treves, the German government voluntarily offered General Pershing the use of German passenger ships, intended in German ports, and elsewhere for carrying American troops home. But Edward Hurley said that any action apart from joint allied action could not be accepted. This incident is regarded as showing Germany's desperate efforts to curry the good will of the associated governments, particularly the American. This was further illustrated by another incident at Treves. Hurley said he extended his arm in a gesture toward a seat and that one German delegate nearly jumped over a table to grab and shake his hand.

WORLD MUST BE EVANGELIZED SAYS REV. L. B. BOWERS

Columbus, Jan. 23.—"Nationalism must be broken down and give place to internationalism."

"The world, including Germany, must be evangelized. Germany must be made to pay to the uttermost farthing, but we are commanded to turn the other cheek and we can best do that by giving her the gospel in place of her gross materialism and autocracy."

In this manner Rev. L. B. Bowers, Moundsville, W. Va., told of the work the Methodist church expects to do during the reconstruction period. Bowers was speaking before the centenary convention of the Cincinnati area here last night.

He advocated participation on the part of the church in national and international diplomacy.

The principal speaker this morning was Rev. L. B. Wilson, just returned from a year in the war zone. He told of his experiences "over there."

The evening session will be entirely taken up by an address by Bishop McDowell, Washington, D. C.

DR. MOTT DEMANDS THAT CRITICS MAKE DEFINITE CHARGES

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Dr. John R. Mott today had renewed his demands that critics name definite days and dates in their accusations against the Y. M. C. A.

Speaking before the Methodist centenary convention here last night, Dr. Mott said:

"I know the Y. M. C. A. more intimately than any other man, and I know there is a mere handful of things to criticize compared to the vast extent of the good things which all admit the 'Y' has done."

"If critics are honest, they will name specific acts and dates when things criticized were done."

OMINOUS SILENCE ENVELOPS PORTUGAL

Madrid, Jan. 23.—The monarchial movement in Portugal has assumed a more serious character, a dispatch from Vigo reported today.

Paris, Jan. 23.—Ominous silence today hung over the situation in Portugal where Monarchists are fighting to restore Manuel to the throne.

Portuguese officials here declared that all direct communication with their country had been severed. The only advice reaching here were rumors, emanating principally from Madrid.

The whereabouts of Manuel were unknown. A Madrid dispatch yesterday said he was aboard a steamship off Lisbon, awaiting a favorable opportunity to land.

The Portuguese legation was without information regarding the insurrection. Diplomatic dispatches were eagerly read at the legation. These messages called attention to the fact that several ministers supporting the monarchist revolution have the same names as ministers who served under President Pass who was assassinated. They are not believed to be the same men, however.

Officials at the legation expected the situation to be cleared up within 24 hours. In the meantime Portugal's peace delegation continued its labors.

PRICE OF LEATHER WILL NOT DROP SOON

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Tanners today put a damper on any hopes for a drop in shoe leather. Officials of the National Association of Tanners predicted a rise in shoe leather, if any change at all is made in the price.

Light leathers showed an advance today of three or four cents. Heavy leathers normal now are expected to advance shortly. The only decrease is seen in harness leather—regarded as a "lost industry."

PREDICTS EVERYONE WILL CARRY PHONES

London, Jan. 23.—"By the time the peace treaty is signed we shall be talking across the Atlantic by wireless," said Godfrey Isaacs, managing director of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company, in an interview.

"One day in the not far distant future," he adds, "I think we shall walk about with wireless telephones attached to our bodies, and we shall be able, standing, say, in Piccadilly Circus, to call up a friend who is flying somewhere. Or we may have an invitation by wireless telephony from a friend flying in France to join him at dinner in the evening."

WORLD DRY BY 1930 IS NOW THE SLOGAN

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Prohibition will not force anti-saloon league workers into the job hunting class with brewery employees, it was made clear here today.

In the first place, it is announced, the whole world must be dry by 1930—and the anti-saloon league will father the movement.

Then, the law must be enforced in the United States before American prohibition laws can be used as arguments in other nations.

F. Scott McBride, Superintendent of the Illinois anti-saloon league, in announcing this program today, said the churches will continue to finance the work of the non-partisan anti-saloon forces.

"Our program calls for a dry world by 1930," said McBride. "Some believe it can be accomplished by 1925, but surely it can be done within ten years."

"The new work has already started. We have sent field workers to Scotland, Mexico, England and other countries, to inaugurate the work, using methods we found so successful here. The first duty will be an additional campaign—we will literally flood the world with prohibition literature, every word of which will be printed at the anti-saloon league's own plant at Westerville, Ohio."

McBride declared the victories in America will not effect the office force of the league whose headquarters are maintained in the larger cities. Work of law enforcement, political aid in electing officials who will support and enforce the new dry laws, gathering and printing statistics of the effects of the law in American cities and rural districts, he asserted, will keep full quotas of office forces busy for several years.

MORE THAN ONE WAY OF GETTING WHAT YOU WANT

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Charles M. Gordon owns a house in Georgetown, and the sheriff built a dog pound right near Gordon's house. And the dogs howl at night. And Gordon couldn't sleep. And so he got himself elected to the state legislature from Brown county. And now he's introduced a bill making it unlawful to build a dog pound within three thousand yards of any dwelling.

MANY POST-WAR BILLS PRESENTED

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Post-war legislation continued today to occupy much of the attention of Ohio legislators.

Among new measures introduced were these:

By Representatives Grove, Cleveland, and Jones, Trumbull county, providing badges of honor for Ohio soldiers and sailors.

By Representative Gorrell, Carroll county, doing away with publication of county auditors reports in German language papers.

By Representative White, Columbiana county, prohibiting display of red or black flags as the emblems of organizations "opposed to organized government."

Representative Miller, Stark county, introduced two bills, one authorizing judges to forbid re-marriage of persons to whom they grant divorces and the other requiring ten days notice by publication of applications for marriage licenses.

Representative Krieger, Hocking county introduced a bill to revive an old law requiring every able-bodied man to do two days work each year on roads.

The legislature will recess late today for the rest of the week.

WANTS 'EM ABOLISHED.

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Rep. Lustig, Cleveland, announced today he will introduce next week a bill to abolish the state utilities commission. "The commission costs the state $75,000 a year in salaries," said Lustig, "and it does nothing but raise the rates of public utilities."

SLAV PROBLEM SEEMS NEAR TO A SOLUTION

By Lowell Mellett.

Paris, Jan. 23.—The Russian problem which has been recognized as the greatest obstacle to a quick and permanent peace settlement, appeared to be well on the way to solution today.

The action of the supreme war council last yesterday in voting partial recognition of the soviet government, together with other political and military factions in Russia—which was exclusively forecast by the United Press on January 11—was accepted as paving the way for amicable adjustment of Russian affairs.

The program of the associated powers, which was based on unqualified acceptance of a proposal by President Wilson provides that their representatives shall meet with representatives of each of the Russian elements on the Prince's Island in the sea of Marmora, near Constantinople, Feb. 15. There an effort will be made to work out the future of the Russian nation along the lines of self-determination.

The associated powers are expected to cooperate in every way for the establishment of a stable Russian government and the restoration of Russia economically, industrially and socially.

The Russians will be expected to make certain concessions in return for the aid of the associated powers. These will include immediate cessation of all hostilities with the Russian borders, general elections on a representative basis and arrangement for the payment of Russia's national debts.

The Russians will also be asked to remove all economic barriers, that food and raw material can be rushed into the country to provide sustenance and employment for the people.

The personnel of the joint commission of the associated governments, is expected to be announced as soon as acceptance of the Russian factions is received.

The proposal was communicated to them by wireless last night. The representatives will be provided for them and they may proceed to the rendezvous by warship from a Black Sea port if they wish. A civilian and a military official will represent the United States.

The summoning of Gen. Pershing to Paris led to the belief that he might be the military representative of the United States. The identity of the other delegate was a matter of speculation. If he is selected from the peace delegation, it is believed that Col. House, health permitting, his knowledge of international affairs and the fact he possesses the confidence of a large portion of the European working class appeared to be principal points in his favor.

One of the most significant angles of the "steering committee's" action was the evidence of power and influence that can be exercised by the United States and Great Britain when working in unison. The original proposal for some form of recognition of the soviet government was presented by the British government in a joint note to the other members of the "big five"—American, France, Italy and Japan. The only country openly to declare its position was France, foreign minister Pichon issuing a statement in which he announced that any dealing with the bolsheviks was unthinkable. The other big powers reserved decision of their attitude for the sessions of the war council.

The Russian problem was formerly taken up by the council Monday. For three days it occupied the time of that body. When all the cards had been placed on the table, President Wilson submitted his written proposal. This was promptly accepted as the one possible solution.

AMERICAN FLAGS STAMPED ON IRON CROSSES OF HUNS

American headquarters in Germany, Jan. 23.—The American flag has been submitted to the ultimate insult.

Coblentz dealers have been discovered selling watch fobs made of iron crosses on which were replicas of American flags. American army officials confiscated all these stocks and are seeking the manufacturer. One retailer has been arrested.

A widespread rumor against Germans in the occupied area that Coblentz girls who fraternized with American troops had been forced to polish soldiers' shoes in public, has been traced to the fact that a German opened a shoe shining parlor and employed girls. Inasmuch as public shoe shining is uncommon in Europe, townspeople assumed the girls were being punished.

To replace missing parts of big guns which the Americans refused to accept as part of the quota to be turned over under the armistice rules, Berlin government has ordered the Krupp works to manufacture substitute parts.

POLICE AFTER BANDITS.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Police today sought five automobile bandits who last yesterday robbed Joseph Stinson, brewery employee, of $3,000, which he was taking to a saloon to cash packing house checks.

RETIRED FARMER DIES ON THURSDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After an illness of several years' duration, Clayton Huff, a well known retired farmer, died at his home 652 South Detroit street, at 12:15 Thursday afternoon. He was a sufferer from organic heart trouble.

Mr. Huff was born near South Lebanon, December 16, 1855, and was 63 years of age when he died. He married Miss Anna St. John, of Lebanon, 41 years ago. Mr. Huff was a farmer most of his life, and for 18 years lived on a farm in Greene county, moving to Xenia about a year ago.

He is survived by his widow, and three children: Edward, of the Lower Bellbrook pike; Mrs. Forest Corwin, of South Detroit street, and Miss Hattie Huff, who lives with her parents. A few days before he died, Mr. Huff was received into the Methodist Episcopal church. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

WILLIAM DARNELL HURT WHEN BUGGY IS HIT BY MOTORCYCLE

William Darnell, colored horseman of the Jamestown pike, was painfully injured when the buggy in which he was riding was struck by a motorcycle on the Jamestown pike about a mile and one half from Xenia Wednesday evening about 5:15 o'clock.

Mr. Darnell was thrown from the vehicle and suffered a fracture of the shoulder blade and a deep gash in his forehead, which required four stitches to close. His horse which was the property of D. L. Paulin of Jamestown, was cut about the legs and the buggy was damaged. Mr. Darnell was partially unconscious and when he recovered he walked to the nearest farm house, the horse having run off following the collision. Dr. H. R. Hawkins was called and removed the injured man to the Washington Hospital where his injuries were dressed. He was later removed to his home.

It is thought that the motorcycle rider was also injured, but inquiries failed to reveal his identity.

Mothers!

Your little one won't smile if its liver's full of bile. Cascarets set things right. When kiddies' tongues turn white. They bring relief and joy. To constipated girl or boy. Children think them dandy—They are mild cathartic candy.

Children gladly take Cascarets when cross, feverish, bilious, constipated, because Cascarets taste like candy. If your child has a tainted breath, coated tongue or a cold—give Cascarets as directed on each 10 cent box. Then don't worry. Cascarets work like a charm and can not harm the child's tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

EVANGELIST WILL SPEAK THURSDAY ON "IS THERE A HELL"

"Is there a hell?" Evangelist Harney will answer this question at the First Methodist church Thursday night. Also "Who was hell made for?" asks the evangelist. "I'm dead certain it was never made for man."

"I want every doctor, every lawyer, every preacher, every educator, every merchant, and all the people of Xenia, to hear this message tonight. This is a special sermon. Don't fail to hear it," he says.

Last evening Evangelist Harney again preached to a packed house. Shaming the people for their folly and inconsistencies, he kept them in good-humored laughter at their own weaknesses and sins. Mr. Harney seemed to be in a jolly mood himself and was more an actor and lecturer than a preacher. In the introduction to his sermon, he amplified on the failure of many so-called Christian homes to return thanks at the table before eating the food which comes from the hand of the Heavenly Father. Then he preached from the words as recorded by Luke, "Give ye then to eat."

The disciples had what the hungry multitude needed. It was only a matter of using what they had to see how God would increase, it till it would be sufficient to satisfy all the hungry people before them. So many, the evangelist said, fail to use what they have of talents and acquisitions, because they are unwilling to begin with what seems to them so little. But he showed that the student must begin with the alphabet in order to get to the university. So Christians should begin with what they have to serve God in the feeding of hungry souls.

He made it plain that the laity had just as much responsibility in imparting Christian truth and knowledge to hungry souls as has the pastor. All that folks have to do in order to be useful in their influence for Christ is to tell what they know of Christ, just to be themselves and not think that they have to be somebody else in serving him. The beginner may not be able to make a flowery prayer, but he can make a heart prayer and that is the kind that counts with Christ and with hungry souls of men. If you have religion, you do not want the selfish kind. The use of your talents, with fire, earnestness and enthusiasm will win others to God and render such service as He requires of you.

The hungry people in the multitude which Christ fed had something to do; they had to obey. Christ before they could have satisfaction. This is always so. Christians dare not be slackers and sinners dare not be disobedient. If they do both will perish.

The meetings continue to get definite results in numbers of people turning to God for His saving power, for restoration of soul.

The revival will close Sunday. Only three more days. Services at 2:30 P. M. and 7:15 P. M.

BROTHER OF MRS. MARCUS SHOUP DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Harry Mahanna, brother of Mrs. Marcus Shoup and City Fireman Charles Mahanna, died of influenza pneumonia at his home in Hillsboro Thursday morning. His death is the third that has been caused by the same malady in his immediate relationship within four months. His young wife is also critically ill of the malady.

Last October a son of William Mahanna died of pneumonia following influenza. A month ago his father died of the same trouble. Following his death, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mahanna moved into his property, to make a home for the orphaned young son and daughter. A few days later Mr. Mahanna was stricken, and his wife contracted the infection while nursing him. Mr. Mahanna was 29 years of age.

Mrs. Shoup and Mr. Charles Mahanna went to Hillsboro Thursday, driving through in the Shoup car. Judge Shoup will go over later.

DEATH OF MRS. BERTHA DREES MIFFLIN WAS DUE TO PNEUMONIA

Death of Mrs. Bertha Drees Mifflin, which occurred in New York, was caused by pneumonia and complications, according to information contained in a letter which was received today by Mrs. George Cooper. The letter was written to Mrs. Cooper by a friend of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Drees, at Lansing, Mich.

Mrs. Mifflin went to New York January 7, to meet her husband, Elgin Mifflin, a paymaster in the navy, on his return from France, and to inform him of the death of his father, who was buried the day before he landed.

She was taken ill of a severe cold on the train, but had virtually recovered from that trouble, when pneumonia developed, and she died the following day.

She was also stricken the day before her death by a violent headache, an ailment to which she had been subject for some time. Her death was entirely unexpected.

The body of Mrs. Mifflin, accompanied by her husband, and his brother, Plummer Mifflin, was to be taken back to the home in Lansing, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson of the Stevenson road, went to Anderson Ind., Wednesday morning where they will spend the balance of the week visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kogle.

Really good value, Mrs. Austin's famous Buckwheat. A good big package for a quarter.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easy and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your dealer for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. With Director Ray Lee Jackson, of Columbus, present, the new amateur show was auspiciously put on its feet at a meeting held Wednesday night. Director Jackson read the first act of his production to the assembled amateur thespians to whom he was introduced by Promoter George R. Bocklet. The play is an airy and lively musical comedy with a well-developed theme and plenty of new musical hints. It promises to be a decided success in the way of entertainment. Mrs. Marcus Shoup and Mrs. Paul Yockey chaperoned the first meeting. Other practice sessions were arranged for Thursday afternoon and night.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. There was no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no loss of time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 245 E. Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may have a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.

GRANGE NOTES

Nearly all Greene county Granges have installed their new officers and are preparing for the biggest year in Grange history.

After a year of inactivity due to sickness, bad roads and other unpreventable causes, Caesar Creek Grange has taken on new life and is planning for some effective Grange work the coming year. The new officers were installed on Tuesday evening and they took up their respective duties with the determination to have a strong Grange before the end of the year. Several members of Beaver Grange were present. At its next meeting Beaver Grange will give an oyster supper at the home of Robert McClellan for the members and their families.

The regular meeting of the Greene County Pomona Grange will be held at K. of P. Hall in Xenia on Wednesday, Jan. 29, at 10:00 a. m. A large crowd is expected to take the fifth degree. Immediately after dinner the county deputy and Pomona Master will hold a master's conference and the Pomona lecturer will hold a lecturer's conference. Every master and lecturer in the county is urged to attend these conferences. The new officers will be installed and the lecturer has prepared an interesting program.

The State Grange has asked for 50 new Granges this year and Greene county has decided to try to accomplish the following: Three new Granges, three new Juvenile Granges and 300 new members. Come to Pomona next Wednesday and learn more about it.

FIRST SHIP OFF FOR NEAR EAST

New York.—(Special).—The first of a fleet of relief ships owned by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief sailed from New York this week for ports in Asia Minor. This vessel is the Mercurius, which has been given to the committee by the navy department with the approval of the food administration. The president and Herbert Hoover, director general of the interrelated food administration, are in hearty sympathy with the aims of the committee and are aiding in every way, as indicated by their recent cablegrams to the officials of the organization.

Sailing of the Mercurius precedes by only a few days the opening of the Armenian and Syrian Relief Committee Campaign in the United States for $30,000,000, with which to carry on further relief work. The campaign will be held the week of Jan. 27. Ohio's quota is $1,640,000.

Carrying an assorted cargo of materials and equipment for relief purposes, the Mercurius will reach Constantinople in about 30 days, and begin the work of distributing food, clothing and medical supplies among the starving and plague-infested peoples of Armenia, Syria and Persia, and among the Greeks of Asia Minor.

Another steamer, similarly equipped, but carrying even more foodstuffs and other goods, will sail from this port about the middle of the month. This ship, too, has been presented to the American Committee for Relief in the Near East by the government. Only last week the steamer West Cape, laden with a million and a half dollars' worth of flour, sailed for Constantinople and Beirut.

The 7,555 tons of flour are the property of the committee, having been purchased with the consent of the food administration for distribution throughout Asia Minor by way of the ports mentioned above. The committee has directors in this hunger-ridden area who are supervising the feeding and healing of millions of Armenians, Syrians, Greeks and Persians. The West Cape is not the property of the committee. It is the Mercurius which is the first of the completely equipped relief ships owned by the committee to be sent on its mission of mercy.

On board the Mercurius are 24 small motor cars, 20 motorcycles, 15 ambulances, 60 motor trucks, 2,000,000 yards of cloth, 100,000 blankets, 50,000 pairs of shoes, 1,000 cases of refugee clothing, 200 tons of foodstuffs, chiefly groceries; seven 100-bed hospital units and 10,000 cans of condensed milk.

A special license was required from the food administration for the export of this great quantity of prepared milk. Were it not for the fact that this commodity is intended for hungry babies and children in the Near East, the government would not permit it to be sent out of the country in bulk. The committee got in touch with the food administration in Washington and obtained permission to take out the milk.

Captain Caleb L. Morris, U. S. N., commanding the Mercurius, will get in touch at Constantinople with the commissioners who sailed from this port a week ago to make a survey of Asia Minor for the American Committee for Relief in the Near East. The commissioners are Dr. James L. Barton, Dr. J. F. H. Main, president of Grinnell college, Iowa; Arthur Curtis James, Dr. E. C. Moore of Harvard university, Dr. W. W. Peet of Washington, Dr. G. H. Washburn of Boston and Harold A. Hatch of New York city.

THEATERS

BIJOU

It is not often the case that Grandma's choice of a husband is agreeable to her charming young granddaughter, but despite Pauline Frederick's objections, this time her Grannie's choice turned out to be a diamond in the rough.

The story is told of Dolores, a pretty Creole, and Pedro, a rich Spaniard, with Miss Frederick in the lead supported by Pedro De Cordoba, in "A Daughter of the South," an Adolph Zukor Paramount production. The story is a charming one with a likable bit of romance. It is at the Bijou Friday.

ORPHIUM

Originality of theme is uppermost in the clever Triangle picture-story "The Secret Code" which features a number of clever performers, among them Barney Sherry, Gloria Swanson, Ray Alexander, Dorothy Phillips and Lee Phelps.

The picture, which is at the Orphium Theater Friday, is the amazing story of how the directions for a baby's jacket threatened the success of American arms. Hard to conceive, still it has been developed in an exceedingly clever little plot, with a delightful bit of romance mixed in.

CROWS IN GREAT CLOUDS INVADE FAYETTE COUNTY

Crows in swarms seldom seen in this section are proving a menace to the crops of Fayette County farmers, according to the Washington Herald. The Herald says:

Crows by the hundreds of thousands have been making the McLean woods, two miles west of this city, their roosting place for some little time, and apparently the great flocks of the noisy birds are increasing rapidly as stray flocks of additional crows arrive and are added to the great, noisy chorus.

Monday evening the several acres of woods were so filled with the birds that the trees were densely populated with them, and the limbs of the trees threatened to collapse under the great weight of the birds.

Not only was every tree densely filled with the crows, but several acres of ground in the adjoining field was covered with them until the ground was hidden and in the growing darkness the ground appeared black for a space of several acres in extent.

During the day time the birds fly around over a district several miles in extent, feeding on corn, wheat and in fact, whatever they can find to eat, with the result that many of the farmers are complaining that their wheat has been damaged by the crows pulling up the tender plants and eating them and the decaying grain at the root.

As the result of the depredations of the birds the farmers of the community are seriously considering the feasibility of organizing a shot-gun squad and visiting the roosting place of the birds for the purpose of killing a few and inflicting a scare that will drive them from the community for all time.

The presence of the crows is believed to be due to the unusually mild weather as ordinarily the crows winter much farther south than this community.

Origin of "Gyp."

As the correspondent of the Dickensian suspected, it is probably quite new, to most people that the nom de plume "Gyp" of the well-known French novelist was taken from a Dickens novel. Such is, however, the case. Gyp is the little dog Jip of David Copperfield, with the J changed to a G, so that the initial letter might be the same as that of the Christian name of Countess Sybille Gabrielle Marie Antoinette de Martel de Janville, the lady so well known to the French reading world as "Gyp."—Christian Science Monitor.

Lammas street.

Carmarthens (Wales) folks are proud of their Lammas street, whence comes the Welsh name Hwl Awst. It is generally known that "Lammas" is a corruption of "Lanmass," so called because it was the custom on August 1 to present at church a big firstfruits loaf made from the new corn. The custom still lingers in a Kentish parish, where a sheaf of the new wheat is placed on the altar before the holy communion is celebrated. In Scotland "Lammas" is a quarter-day, and in some rural districts of England there are "Lammas lands." Lammas day is a regular holiday in England.

FEW CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save your hair! Make it thick, wavy and beautiful—try this!

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A FAIR BEGINNING.

If fair words be a fair token of the action which is to be taken by what President Wilson described as "the supreme conference in the history of mankind," at its opening session in Paris, then much of the doubts and misgivings of previous days have been without just cause.

The welcoming address of the President of France, the remarks of President Wilson and Lloyd George and finally the speech of Clemenceau breathed the very spirit of concord and justice. These distinguished leaders of the three great powers at the conference spoke in unqualified terms of the necessity of a peace of justice, they referred to the fourteen peace terms of Wilson as the starting point and the foundation of the deliberations of the conference, and—what is of supreme importance—they put the formation of a League of Nations in the very forefront of the program to be followed.

Amplifying his thought that the delegates were to "seek nothing but justice—justice that knows no favorites, justice in territorial, financial and economic problems." President Poincare said:

"What justice banishes is the dream of conquest and imperialism, contempt for national will, the arbitrary exchange of provinces between States as though peoples were but articles of furniture or pawns in a game."

The words of M. Clemenceau accepting the presidency of the conference had deep significance. He recognized in the assembling of the conference itself the creation of a league of nations, the initial act in the execution of the program laid down by President Wilson. He emphasized the fact that the representatives of the nations were there as friends, and his hope that they must leave as friends, indicated a spirit of accommodation that promises well for the fulfillment of that hope.

That the sentiment reflected in these utterances at the opening of the conference in Paris may continue to actuate its proceedings is the earnest hope of the nations which have in one sense committed their destinies and their future to the august assembly now sitting at the French capital.

THE KAISER AS AN ARCH CRIMINAL.

Whatever the high legal authorities of France and the Allied nations may work out as to the method by which the former Emperor of Germany may be tried by an international tribunal, there is no doubt that the world at large will welcome his indictment and conviction. He has already been tried at the bar of public opinion, condemned and, in a way, is under punishment, not only through the loss of his prerogatives as king and kaiser, but through the fact that he is in all essentials a prisoner, undergoing an indeterminate sentence. He has escaped that precise indictment that is due him as the greatest criminal of his time, who betrayed his own people and the whole world for ambitions so devilish that the desire for justice that resides in most people calls loudly for the formal branding of the war-lord with that mark of Cain that is to be his supreme distinction before all mankind.

Modern public law does not recognize irresponsible royal or executive authorities, even those at the very top. The world, therefore, will look forward with hope to seeing the Peace Conference sit as a high court which will impeach the kaiser, and in doing so make him a lesson for all time.

Opportunity.

"The knell of lost opportunity is never tolled in this life," is some one's reassuring word to all who have let more than one opportunity slip by. It is never too late to profit by one's mistakes, and press on to more success. For Opportunity is not a solitary genius who comes once, then vanishes. He belongs to a large family of man's well-wishers. If we fail to cleave to the elder brothers we can welcome the younger brothers of the clan. Occasionally one finds also that phenomenon of human families—a younger brother, taller, braver, and even more glorious in strength and valor than his fellows. Such "later-coming" Opportunity may reveal himself to any one of us. Only let us keep our courage keen, keep our eyes clear-seeing, and our faith serene; and when any member of the family of Opportunity appears, claim him and cleave to him with all our powers.—Montreal Herald.

THERE MUST BE A WORLD "MAILED FIST."

It seems but yesterday that the "concert of power" was a familiar phrase in international statesmanship. Yet that concert proved an illusive thing, and wars were waged, territory stolen, weak races ruthlessly robbed of their rights, treaties broken, massacres perpetrated, the "concert of power" being impotent to avert these things. Now, however, the intelligence and humanity of all the peoples have been quickened to understand the practicability and the imperative need of the League of Nations as the foundation of the world's hope of permanent peace. This is what our President has felicitously called the final or crowning enterprise of humanity. He found the leading statesmen in both Britain and France already impressed with the conviction that such a League was the true guarantee of enduring peace, and this he regarded as the most reassuring thing that has ever happened in the world.

GREENE CO. BOY NOW OFFICIALLY REPORTED ALIVE

Under the heading "Erroneously reported died from wounds received in action," in Thursday's casualty list, is the name of William H. Hoyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoyle, of R. F. D. 1, Spring Valley. Private Hoyle was reported to be dead from wounds received in action some time ago, although his parents had received a letter from him written since the time he was supposed to have died. The erroneous report, caused them much anxiety however, until a later letter announced that the lad was well. This letter was written since the armistice was signed.

Following the assurance given in this letter, the casualty list of several weeks ago carried the report that the young man was dead, and the refutation of the erroneous report has just been made.

Counteracting Foul Air.

At times it is quite necessary to be in a place where quarters are close and the air anything but fresh. In crowded cars, for example, in subways, elevators, busses and other means of conveyance, as well as in halls and theaters, the waste material present in the air almost always exceeds the amount of oxygen present. It is largely due to this condition of the air that ailments are contracted to such a great extent in these places. Take breaths as deep as you possibly can when you get on a car and when you get off it. In either instance you load your tiny blood tubes and vessels with plenty of oxygen, so that you prepare a way strongly to resist the poisonous influence of the air you must breathe during the next few moments or for the next hour or so.

MOTORRAIDS

Automobile fires which originate within the car itself are most commonly caused by back fires into the carburetor, or by accidental sparks. They are fed by spilt gasoline and by oil and grease which has collected upon the car parts, and the fire then spreads to the wiring, the upholstery and all combustible parts.

Back fires may be prevented by supplying an excess of gasoline when the engine is cold, so that the mixture may not be lean enough to burn so closely as to be capable of firing an entering charge. A fine wire gauze cone, set into the intake pipe at the carburetor flange, is said to prevent fire from reaching the carburetor.

Stray electrical flashes may be prevented by seeing that the terminals do not become loose or detached, or that short circuits do not occur from the wearing away of insulation or other causes. Most cars are now so well wired that short circuit fires very seldom occur. It is of the utmost importance that spilled or leaking gasoline should be avoided, as it is usually the ignition of the vapor that starts a fire.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. S. B. LeSourd left this morning for a few days absence in settling fire losses at Gallipolis and in Warren County.

SETH SNOWDEN FARM NEAR WILMINGTON, IS SOLD

Seth Snowden has sold his handsome home and farm of 113 acres, just west of Wilmington on the Harveysburg pike, to John Black, of the Martinsville neighborhood, and with his wife will soon go to Florida for the balance of the winter.

This farm was formerly the property of the late H. A. Snowden, and had been in the Snowden family for more than a century probably. Mr. Black will be given possession soon.

Mr. Snowden still owns the old Lincoln farm in the rear of the one he has sold, and will reside there.—Wilmington News.

Hardships of Trapping.

The North American Indian is the ideal trapper, and the Canadian and American frontiersmen come next. In habits they are all much alike. They live far from the haunts of men, they lodge in smoky and smelly tepees or log cabins, they live on coarse food of very few kinds, and in winter they seldom get a bath or a haircut. From the beginning of the long and dreary winter to the end of it, the frontiersmen trappers are engaged in a hand-to-hand fight with the elements. They must wade countless miles through deep snow, and terrible cold to set their trap lines, and then to visit them looking for results. They take great risks of getting frozen to death or meeting with accidents alone and far from help. When traps have been set they must be visited regularly. The modern white trapper lives better than the old type and he keeps himself as clean as any other backwoodsman.

BRIAN RENTS THE OFFICE RUTH SELECTED

CHAPTER CXLVIII

About eleven o'clock Ruth and Brian called on the agent who had so she selected. She felt almost afraid kindly allowed Ruth to hold the option for so long a time on the office to ask him if it were still vacant, but when he assured her that it was, and added:

"I was perfectly sure you would want it, Mrs. Hackett, so have not tried to let it," she thanked him profusely.

Brian was delighted with it. The location just suited him, and the room was bright and sunny with a small waiting room leading into it.

It was all the space he should need until he became famous, he remarked jokingly.

"Which I hope may be very soon, Lieutenant," the agent politely replied.

"It is going to be very soon," Ruth added with decision.

Ruth insisted that they at once get the office cleaned and furnished. In this she was not quite as unselfish as it might appear. She would have something to occupy her mind for a day or two—the first spent out of business in years. To tell the truth, Ruth rather dreaded these first days, although she in no way allowed regrets to fill her mind, she couldn't! Brian was too boyishly happy.

If, in his exuberance, he said things which hurt a little—if he didn't seem to realize that she had given up anything really vital for him—she tried not to notice, and did not explain.

Brian's absence, his danger, his wounds, and lastly the recognition given him by his country, had made all her own desires and plans seem very unworthy to Ruth as compared to making her soldier-husband happy and contented with his home. This she realized that he never had been. And she also sensed that it was partly because he did not feel that it was HIS home; but he thought of it as HER home, the home she provided.

The agent had recommended a cleaning woman who was working at the building, so Ruth left Brian talking to him while she found her and made arrangements for the thorough cleaning of the office. Then she and Brian measured the floor and windows, New shades and a nice rug were the first requisites. They went at once to a department store and selected them. Then went at once to a department store and selected them. Then they took a taxi and drove to the warehouse where Brian had stored his small law library. They ordered the books delivered, but Ruth decided the old bookcase wouldn't do. It was an old walnut one Brian had picked up for a song when he first left college and opened his office.

"You must have the sort of bookcase which can be added to as you buy more books," Ruth said decidedly. "You are going to need more books right away. You haven't near as many as auntie's lawyer down town had."

"Considering that Mrs. Clayborne's lawyer was an old man, and had had been practicing many years, I scarcely think it very strange," Brian returned with a laugh. But his eyes were a little moist, his manner very tender because of Ruth's thought for him.

That night after dinner they talked of what they had done during the day, of all they hoped it might mean to Brian to have an office in such a locality and in the same building with men of affairs. Ruth astonished Brian with her grasp of both essentials and what he had deemed non-essentials, but which he saw were really things necessary to build himself up in his profession—after she had explained.

Ruth was really very practical where business matters were concerned. The responsibility which had been necessarily hers because of the war taking so much of her employer's time and attention, so throwing on her shoulders the onus of the business, had developed her greatly along the practical lines of affairs. Not only had she become an artistic and valuable member of Mandel's force because of this, but also because she had, through this late experience, become almost the business manager of the firm as well.

Brian was truly astonished at her acumen, but he said nothing of this to her. He was too well pleased with the way matters were going; too happy that she was going to, at last be contented to remain at home. "Will it put you out if I bring Major Williams home to dinner tomorrow night?" Brian asked as they started for bed. Ruth was delighted. More because it proved that perhaps she WAS doing what would be for the best happiness of both in the end, than because she really cared about meeting Ma Williams. Tomorrow—Ruth Plans A Surprise For Brian.

WILL YOU HELP HER?

Her husband died last winter leaving her penniless with three children under seven years of age to rear and educate. This little mother has made an heroic struggle. She has tried working at the factory and doing days work, etc., but it is impossible to get a competent woman to care for her children during her absence. Owing to lack of money in our Mothers' Pension Fund, her pension is meager. This little mother has a room to rent and an opportunity to get two roomers but lacks furniture. Have you a bedstead, mattress, dresser, chair or carpet you do not need?
By doing a few washings and keeping roomers this frail woman will endeavor to make ends meet.

FRENCH SERGE FROCK FOR LATE WINTER GIVES A FEW HINTS FOR EARLY SPRING

The one-piece frocks which are being shown in the shops now show the tendencies of the spring fashions, namely, an extremely long skirt drawn very tight about the ankles, a stand-up collar, a round neckline, and a sash of some sort or other. This serviceable frock is made of French serge. The lines are very graceful and simple, with beige colored satin and stitching forming a smart contrast to the blue.

SCIENTISTS TO ASK REMOVAL OF BANS

Christian Scientists have submitted to the general assembly a measure they believe is minus some of the features objected to in former efforts to get exemption from the medical practice control act.

The bill specifies Christian Science instead of referring in a general way to healing by spiritual means or prayer.

Objection to the exemption formerly was made that it would throw the door wide open to imposters, soothsayers and others professing to practice under the guise of religion.

Thirty States' Experience.
Senator Davis of Youngstown and Representative Morris of Cincinnati, in the senate and house, respectively, yesterday introduced a bill which would add these words to the medical practice law:

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to persons practicing Christian Science, with or without compensation, provided they do not prescribe or administer drugs or medicine, nor perform surgical or physical operations, nor assume the title of, or hold themselves out to be, physicians or surgeons, and provided they shall not be exempt from the operation and enforcement of the sanitary and quarantine laws of the state.

The bill, as introduced, is verbatim the proposal recommended by Senator Howell Wright, secretary of the Cleveland Hospital council, who was appointed by Governor Cox to make a study of and offer recommendations regarding supervision and regulation of hospitals under the operation of the medical practice act.

Senator Wright wrote to the medical boards and public health departments of 30 states which have legalized Christian Science, asking whether imposters have taken advantage of the exemption, whether Christian Science practitioners have observed the provisions of the sanitary code, and whether they failed to report contagious and infectious diseases.

Not a Menace.
After giving a digest of replies, Wright, in his report to the governor, makes this comment:

"Certainly Christian Scientists can not be held responsible for the existence of a few imposters, and, admittedly, from the information secured, the number is limited. The replies indicate a strong willingness and tendency on the part of Christian Scientists to comply with the sanitary rules and regulations as to reporting of contagious diseases. And, very apparently, medical officials in but a few states consider Christian Scientists a menace to public health. On the whole the information secured favors Christian Science and would seem to justify the exemption from medical practice acts in force in 30 other states."

Commenting on the amendment of the Ohio medical practice act as proposed by the bill introduced by Senator Davis and Representative Morris, Senator Wright's report says: "Every possible safeguard for the public has been included in this amendment. The experience of other states, as expressed in their statutes, is expressed in the proposed amendment. If this amendment is enacted and properly enforced, the public need have no fear of the practice of Christian Science. Indeed, it may be said with truth that Christian Scientists will not burden the department enforcing this law, for they are intelligent and law-abiding citizens."

To Prevent Rugs Slipping.

There are many devices to prevent rugs from slipping on highly-polished floors. One of the best and also the cheapest is to cut pieces of rough sheathing paper the exact size of the rugs and lay it under them. They will not move them. Another way is to sew triangles of corrugated rubber sheeting to the corners of the rugs.

MAN'S CLOTHING ENTIRELY BURNED FROM HIS BODY

Enveloped in flames when the sisal he was working with in the cordage mill of the R. A. Kelly Co., caught on fire, Gardner Stephens, of Orange street, was seriously burned at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning.

Superficial or first degree burns which cover his entire body from the head to the feet make his case a most serious one and are causing him considerable suffering. He is at the Espey Hospital where he was taken after the burns were dressed by Drs. W. A. Galloway and H. C. Messenger, in the first aid room of the plant.

Mr. Stephens is employed in what is known as the batching room of the separation department, and was working a machine through which the sisal is drawn. It is thought that the fire was started from a spark caused by a contact of the steel of the machine with a spebble in the product. Such fires frequently result but are never serious. The flames in this case flashed under the apron of the machine and quickly ignited the unfortunate man's oil and grease soaked clothes. He was entirely enveloped in the flames before assistance could be rendered him.

Drs. Galloway and Messenger were called and the man was taken to the first aid room of the Kelly Co., where so terrible were his burns, that it took the physicians two hours to dress them. He was later removed to the Espey Hospital where he was resting easier Thursday afternoon.

While burns are mostly only skin deep, the unfortunate man's condition is rendered more serious because the burns cover practically every portion of the body.

COURT NEWS

After deliberating only a short time, the jury returned a verdict Thursday morning in favor of the P. C. C. and St. L. Railroad Company in the damage suit for $15,000 which was brought by Virgil Shaffer as administrator of the estate of Adam Karns. Mr. Karns was killed at the New Jasper crossing of the defendant railroad two years ago last May, when the horse he was driving drew the vehicle in front of approaching train. The man was a painter and paper hanger.

Riches in Pine Waste.

The industrial value of a full-grown pine tree is no less than five times what we get from it. If, of all the yellow pine cut, the entire trees were used, not only as theoretical science, there would be added to the estate of the American people every day 40,000 tons of paper, 3,000 tons of resin, 300,000 gallons of turpentine and 600,000 gallons of ethyl or grain alcohol, together with the fuel for these industries and the lumber we get as it is. Of course this would require a heavy expenditure of capital and a large amount of labor, but the facts remain.

MANN MAY NOT BE ABLE TO BE IN THE FIGHT FOR SPEAKER

Washington, Jan. 23.—Rep. James B. Mann, of Illinois, candidate for the speakership of the next house, is not in as good physical condition as he was at the beginning of the present session, last December, according to reports among his friends today.

Whether Mann's condition will affect his speakership campaign was problematical.

INTERNATIONAL FLAG HAS BEEN DESIGNED

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Leo E. Dwyer, Columbus, president of the motion picture firm of Dwyer Brothers & Co., has designed an international flag for the proposed league of nations. A copy has been sent to President Wilson.

The flag has a white field with a blue star to represent each country. Projecting from the world, which is in the center, is a band holding the scales of justice. The world is encircled by a gold band.

Special significance is attached to each feature of the flag. The white field represents peace and purity; the stars are suggestive of the large and small nations comprising the league, and the blue represents their truth, sincerity and friendship; the world denotes cooperation by the league for the protection of all races, regardless of creed or color; the scales represent justice and the band of gold signifies the wealth, heretofore wasted in war, to be employed henceforth for nobler purposes.

POLICE NEWS

"Dayton Joe" Hartley, released from the work house Thursday morning, was ushered out of the city by Chief Canaday, before he got into further trouble. Joe was put on the Dayton car and shipped to that city.

Lester "Big Boy" Lewis, alleged deserter from the United States army, was taken into custody by local police Wednesday and is being held pending the arrival of a guard from the Columbus barracks, who will transfer him there.

"Big Boy" holds the championship in the deserting from the army contest, and has eloped from the military seven or eight times. He was caught here several times but came back so regularly that no action was taken by the local authorities when he returned the last time. Chief Canaday received a letter from the government, however, asking that he be taken in charge and he was immediately placed under arrest.

Took Time to Prepare Work.

The more one reads of the great war the more one must appreciate the fact that Victor Hugo's immortal description of the battle of Waterloo was not written until 1861, or 46 years after it happened, and time had been given for the dust to settle. It was 37 years after Waterloo that Tennyson wrote "The Charge of the Light Brigade" and 30 years after the fact that Emerson wrote "The Great Duke of the Empire's Lamentation."

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Xenia Gazette or The Xenia Republican.

LETTER FROM RAY BRANNEN ON WAY FOR TWO MONTHS

More than two months after the armistice was signed, Mr. and Mrs. John Brannen of Home avenue, parents of Private Ray Brannen, received a letter from him which was written November 14. The letter came a few days ago, greatly relieving his anxious parents and wife. Mrs. Brannen received two letters Wednesday, which were written in Germany at a later date, and said that he was with the army of occupation.

Private Brannen is with the Three hundred and twenty second field artillery.

WIDOW WANTS THE EXECUTOR OF BRYAN ESTATE REMOVED

Mrs. Fredericka Bryan, widow of John Bryan has filed a motion in the probate court of Hamilton county seeking to have Edgar Stark, trust officer of the Union Savings Bank and Trust company removed as executor of her husband's estate on the technical charge that he has allowed thirty days to pass without filing an inventory of the estate.

Bryan's estate is estimated at $750,000 and last Monday, Stark, as executor, sued in the common pleas court at Cincinnati, to compel the Western Bank and Trust Company to replevin the contents of a safety deposit box there said to contain $75,000 worth of Bryan's securities. The box was held in the name of L. N. Harper, and the executor declares that Bryan merely assumed this name. Until this is obtained, the estate cannot be appraised.

WILLARD WILL FIGHT CARPENTIER BUT PURSE MUST BE BIG

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Jess Willard, heavy weight champion, was here on business today—not boxing business, but oil business. And Jess declared he was making big money out of oil.

Willard, however, said he would fight if a bout could be arranged with Georges Carpentier.

Jess admitted the purse will be the largest factor in determining on a bout. Training, he said, is hard work and "a laborer is worthy of his hire."

Seagulls Die in Oil.

Thousands of dead seagulls soaked with fuel oil strew the waters of Lynn canal, near the wreck of the steamship Princess Sophia, according to steamship captains arriving at Seattle. When the Princess Sophia was swept on the rocks of Vanderbilt reef her fuel oil tanks burst, releasing the oil, which soon covered the water for a great distance. The gulls alighting in the water were instantly made helpless and soon starved to death.

and quiet Xenians yet that is but a few of the tentative plans, that have been talked of considerably in this city lately and which have reached the point where they have become a very plausible possibility. Interest in the affair is growing rapidly and financial assistance has been offered to promoters of the plan.

While several locations have been suggested for the situation for the country club, of which there are many in Greene County's natural beauty spots, the latest and most plausible plan that has been talked of among agitators of the movement, involves the use of the plant of the Xenia Water Company on the Springfield pike. If the city of Xenia buys the Water Company and opens a new water supply, as will be absolutely necessary, the plant of the Springfield pike, pumping station, would make an ideal location for a country club and could be easily converted for that purpose.

Situated on the car line, easy of access, in a beautiful little valley, the club would have to begin with, 21 acres of rolling pasture land, with plenty of permanent pasture adjacent for splendid golf links and tennis courts. Two lakes of considerable size and a depth of thirty feet provide ideal boating, fishing and swimming. By the clever hand of the architect, the big brick building of the pumping station, could be turned into an ideal club house. The building is high enough for two stories, and tentative plans equip it with a handsome dining room on the second floor, a 30 by 50 foot dance hall on the ground floor and shower baths in the basement. A brick building for storing coal could be easily and inexpensively converted into a kitchen. The tenant house on the place would make an ideal caretaker's house and present equipment on the place accommodate themselves easily to the plan in view.

The place is delightfully situated and a constant breeze keeps the spot cool in the summer. There is plenty of verdure, grass and trees, with a handsome lane of hard maple trees leading from the traction line to the buildings. A veranda could be added to the south and east sides of the building which would add greatly to the pleasantness and comfort of the club house and provide for a view of the surrounding country.

The need of such a place is poignant, Xenians who spend their summers here, are bound to go out of town for their amusements and recreation. This fact has done much to take the interest of many people from this city. Few of the many parks and clubs in other cities are satisfactory and it is believed that the founding of a country club here, would be popular not only with Xenians but with people of the nearby cities.

BAD BRONCHIAL COUGH FOR 36 YEARS

Mrs. Bice finally found how to stop it, without changing climate.

"I had suffered with bronchitis for 36 years. When I was two years old, I had the whooping cough and it left me in an awful state ever since. I have taken hundreds of dollars worth of medicine, with but little relief. I had to sit up in bed all night and cough, getting up strings of phlegm, and choking until my eyes nearly burst out of their sockets. I am poor and could not afford to change climate.

"Finally my husband urged me to try Milks Emulsion, saying if it didn't help me, I could get my money back. I tried it and have continued its use until now my bronchial tubes are free and clear and I can breathe with ease. When you think that I had this dreaded disease all my life, you can see why I want everybody to try Milks Emulsion."

—Mrs. Anna Bice, 1451 Wendall St., Columbus, Ohio.

Sprays and gargles and local remedies do not touch a cough of this kind. The trouble is deep-seated. The whole system must be strengthened and built up to throw it off. The same thing is true of a bad cold.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of asthma, chronic bronchitis, and tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price, 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

JUNIORS WIN X. H. S. CLASS CHAMPIONSHIP

After the smoke of battle from eighty minutes of strenuous basketball had cleared away at the Rink Wednesday afternoon, it was determined that the quintet representing the Junior class had hung up a victory and the class championship of the school, in the most exciting class series that has ever been staged here.

The third-year men got to the Sophomores, early after the starter's whistle had put them into the fray and were never headed, the fracas ending with Riddell's pastimers on the long end of a 16 to 8 score. In the consolation contest which was played as a preliminary to the championship affair, the Seniors retrieved some of their lost glory, by gloriously defeating the scrappy Freshmen, the bad news summing up to the total of 12-3. The preliminary was probably the most exciting of the two set-to's.

Only two field goals were tossed through the net in the initial period of this game, Hoag and Currie registering for each team. Captain Skelly of the first-year men gave them a slight edge however, when he rung the hoop with a free shot and the half ended with the score 3-2 in favor of the Freshmen. Increased activity on the part of the Seniors early in the final session averted the disaster, however, and goals by Currie, Wead and Finley, paved the way to victory. The Freshmen did not score in the second session.

The summary:
Seniors Freshmen
Wead If Hoag
Finley If Purdon
Currie If Skelly (c)
Tullis If Owens
Snodgrass If Boxwell
Substitutions: Freshmen—Irwin for Purdon. Field goals—Wead 2, Finley, Currie 3, Hoag; foul goals—Skelly. Referee, W. Vannorsdall.

The championship game, while being far from a tame affair, was a little more lop-sided, although it took the forty minutes of play to decide the winner. Captain Riddell won his own game with five fielders and it was his regularity and Taylor's eye on the basket in the first half that put the Juniors in the front of the parade.

"Captain" Bill LeSourd of the Sophomores, was a basket ball whirlwind, but although he caged the pellet three times he could not stem the tide of defeat. Four points each half was the best the Sophomores could do although they tried pluckily. The second half was much faster than the initial period and the teams played each other more evenly. The first half ended with the score 0 to 4.

The summary:
Juniors Sophomores
Taylor If Moore
Riddell (c) If LeSourd (c)
Kestle If Hudson
Hyman If Curlett
Pillsbury If Canney
Substitutions: Juniors—Hopping for Taylor, Taylor for Pillsbury, Beals for Hyman; Sophomores—Davidson for Canney. Field goals: Taylor 2, Riddell 5, Hopping, LeSourd 3, Hudson. There was not a foul goal made. Referee, W. Vannorsdall.

BASEBALL FANS BEGIN TO PLAN FOR NEW SEASON

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of baseball. Spring, according to the calendar and the almanac and other authorities on the subject is not yet due, but warm spring-like weather is getting the jump on the matter this year by registering in large, warm quantities with a degree of sincerity that makes one believe that the old baseball season is already upon us.

Locally, the stove-league has almost wound up an abbreviated season, because of the weather conditions, and active participation in the old diamond pastime, is about to take the place of the hot-air nine that has been batting around 300 since the World Series passed into baseball history. In fact so strong is the call of this weather, that plans have already been formulated for putting another good team in the field this spring and from all indications the old Reserves will likely take up the burden of upholding local baseball honors this summer.

Manager Stiles, of the well-known and popular Reserve team, has already secured the old Reserve diamond on Cincinnati avenue for the season's conflicts and is busy formulating plans for the summer program. With the close of the war and the return of soldiers from France, it is assured by experts that baseball will not only return to the place it occupied before the war but will enjoy an ascendancy in popularity that it has never known before. Locally things look brilliant for a most successful season and it is thought that the baseball outlook in the county was never brighter.

Besides the Reserves, the Shamrocks, who have put a team in the field ever since they were mere kids, and who have grown up big enough to challenge the Reserves now, are issuing such a challenge for the opening game of the season. With two teams already promised it looks as if the baseball season will be a lively one.

Fatal Diseases. Bronchitis is the most fatal disease in England; next comes consumption, and then heart disease, pneumonitis and scarlatina.

THIS COLUMBUS TRAVELING MAN SAYS HE'S CURED

VETERAN A. LYNN VOLUNTEERS
A WONDERFUL NERV-
WORTH STORY.

Mr. A. Lynn, widely known Columbus man, who for 17 years has represented the Adams Bag Co., of Cleveland on the road, is one of those thankful Nerv-Worth users who go out of their way to tell others their good Nerv-Worth news. For this purpose, while in Zanesville, Mr. Lynn made a special call at the Nerv-Worth office and gave the following statement signing his name thereto:

Nerv-Worth Co.: At my home in Columbus I had doctored for some time for indigestion, weakness, etc., without getting relief. While in Cambridge, Ohio, I bought a bottle of Nerv-Worth and put it to the test. Soon found it was helping me. Found decided relief after taking the first bottle. Two weeks later at Clarksburg, W. Va., I bought another bottle of Nerv-Worth. After taking that I felt still better—stomach much improved. More strength, vim and vigor. I used four bottles of Nerv-Worth and AM ENTIRELY WELL. Can eat anything I want without distress.
